

ON SOCIETY & GOVERNMENT

Some aphorisms, sayings, maxims, adages, dictums, epigrams, proverbs, precepts attributed to Li Kiang by Albert G. Wilson

1. What separates people is consciousness, not space, race, gender, or religion.
2. Whether they ever meet one another, those who drink from the same fountain KNOW one another.
3. Government is about the attempts to solve with legislation the problems that have been created by legislation.
4. We shall not make it until we all make it.
5. This culture will be destroyed by the things it has ignored.
6. The culture's emphasis on validation had caused it to lose the importance of signification.
7. In nature evolution tends toward increasing complexity. But human history is filled examples of loss of complexity, loss of knowledge and understanding.
8. While the primeval state created the pyramids, the pyramids themselves helped to create the state in a focus of communal effort, of common faith in the living Sun God. Religion is often utilized by authorities to motivate communities.
9. Anytime there is a call for unity, suspect a power agenda.
10. We cut ourselves off from goals by defining them.
11. We project ourselves into other cultures just as we project ourselves into nature
12. The problems created by weapons will not be solved by using weapons.